

ASIA - N. KOREAN PREMIER FOR NON-INTERFERENCE

HONG KONG, SEPT. 7, REUTER - NORTH KOREAN PREMIER MARSHAL KIM IL-SUNG SAID TODAY, THAT RELATIONS WITHIN THE SOCIALIST CAMP SHOULD BE GOVERNED BY THE PRINCIPLES OF COMPLETE EQUALITY, INDEPENDENCE AND NON-INTERFERENCE IN INTERNAL AFFAIRS.

IN A LENGTHY STATEMENT ON THE EVE OF THE 20TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE FOUNDING OF NORTH KOREA, MARSHAL KIM SAID ONLY BY FOLLOWING THESE PRINCIPLES COULD GENUINE UNITY BE ACHIEVED AMONG FRATERNAL PARTIES AND COUNTRIES, THE NORTH KOREAN CENTRAL NEWS AGENCY REPORTED.

"TO CEMENT THE CLASS SOLIDARITY OF THE SOCIALIST COUNTRIES, ALL THE FRATERNAL COUNTRIES SHOULD RESPECT AND SINCERELY ASSIST EACH OTHER ON AN EQUAL FOOTING," HE SAID.

"AT THE SAME TIME, THEY SHOULD NOT RENOUNCE THEIR AUTONOMY UNDER PRESSURE FROM OUTSIDE AND BLINDLY FOLLOW OTHER PARTIES AND COUNTRIES."
